The first edifice was set up in the then Lokepara football ground by the Headmaster of Lokepara High School, Dr. Nabakishore Hazara. The well-wishers and progressive minded people of the locality raised a fund named as 'College's money' through extensive door to door collection from the locals. The locals to contribute 8 acres of land for establishment of the college without any expectation or pecuniary rewards for the said contribution. After a long struggle, in 2008, the flagship was successfully carry forwarded by Dr. Karunasindhu Das who beside being a native of Lokepara Mahavidyalaya was the Vice-Chancellor of Rabindra Bharati University. *The then Education Minister Sri Sudarshan Roy Choudhury led the foundation stone on 20th January, 2011.
